Greetings,

I have been a full-time Bluff resident since 1981.

Bluff's Strategic Plan acknowledges that Bluff is an evolving population and that we should adapt to the needs of an aging population and welcome both aged and young people to contribute towards a sustainable Bluff community.

I favor allowing Cow Canyon Coffee to use the Fire Mesa Kitchen to help start and grow their small business. The Bluff Community Center has accommodated small commercial ventures in the past; for example, frybread stations and food trucks at the Bluff Arts Festival. A few years ago, I participated in a really nice cooking class, led by a professional chef, in the Fire Mesa Kitchen. I learned a new cooking skill!

I hope that the Town Council can find a way to accommodate these small economic ventures in a sustainable way.

Thank you for your consideration.
